Discussion
Peace Bells – Pasta to paint bell LIVE at March's Morada Way art walkabout. Story about disposition of orig bell passed on to members
Membership – t-shirt designs were discussed, Marlene's new sketch was shown and bell with Keys map chosen for one set of t-shirts
American Legion determined as next Meet/Greet – Todd, ex-cook from Calysos will be there and create dishes just for us for the monthly Meet and Greet .
Woofstock – Diane reported that all is ready to go but we have not received mail from Woofstock; Denise will check box when She returns on 13 th . Jim will deliver Traveling Peace Arch when he drives down to Key West, drop off at Denise's with bells
Education -Relax and Renew classes are very popular and being continued. The next Challenge Day is Wednesday March 13th - Volunteers are needed. This is a very important event and all are encouraged to participate.
Long Walk Home - Ron Z. has decided to go to Pirates on the Water for volunteers and to ROTC for military to help with opening of Beatle Tribute Concert. He has advertisers lined up for program but hasn't sold a lot of tickets yet.
Ron will put article and ad in paper three weeks before the concert.
Newsletter/Website - Marlene to meet with Jeff and work on website next IMP day. Hope to get real progress on it now.
Administrative - Changing the format of the newsletter was discussed; will transition into less text, more calendar & visual
Island Marketplace - Boats will be leaving market next weekend; definitely plans are in the works for purchase by outside party Dollar Tree but all booths so far will stay in place, probably in the back with new entrances created on either side
And new bathrooms, including one for handicapped.
Community Outreach -
Public Relations &amp; Promotions -
