4th of July Parade

Come join the fun as we compete in Key Largo's 42nd annual 4th of July Parade!

Contact Nancy Joe (nan_sea_joe@yahoo.com) if you want to be a part of it all: Ride the float! Last year we won the Grand Marshall's trophy for Best Original Float; this year we hope to win more. Or help staff the booth at Key Largo park after the parade---we will be giving out water and other free stuff.

This year's theme is Salute to Teachers and we will be throwing fireball candy attached to a note that asks, "Who is/was your favorite teacher?"

Respondents can send answers to a special email noted on the card or they can post them on our Facebook page; responding gives them a chance to win a trip for four on the Key Largo Princess (<http://keylargoprincess.com/>), Key Largo's glass bottom boat.

Come join the fun!

Compassionate Student Scholarship

A Compassionate Student Scholarship fund is being discussed and is in its infancy. We hope to have it developed sometime this summer, just in time for the new school year.

This is the first time Keys to Peace has ever had a fund that would award an outstanding student for acts of compassion, kindness and service in the community.

We look for your input and ideas going forward.

Contact info@keystopeace.org with your ideas, suggestions and ways to raise money for this terrific fund.

...is a grassroots organization building an awareness and practice of peace through education and community activities. We offer tools to help develop a peaceable and sustainable Florida Keys community.

A peaceable community is committed to relationships based on acceptance, respect, tolerance, justice, and dignity.

Our vision is to bring the community together. We act as a catalyst to peace. We offer opportunities for people to choose projects where they can use their gifts and graces to participate in activities that help create peace. It is by giving of our unique talents and compassion to help others, that we receive the gift of peace within ourselves. We also offer activities where people join with each other and practice peace.

Mission Statement:

Creating a more compassionate, peaceable, and sustainable Florida Keys community through education, affiliation, and innovation.

Compassionate Help Needed

Contact us if you can do one of the following jobs:

- Write press releases & submit to newspapers.

- Speak about our projects & events on local radio shows
- Artists wanted to donate their talents by painting our Peace Bells. Please submit artwork samples to info@keystopeace.org.
